

Job Description

Fitness Duty Manager/ Personal Trainer – Studio Society, West Hampstead, London

Basic Salary: £12.25 per hour – 24 hours per week.

+ Personal Training commissions at £32.50 per session

+ Commission on membership sales

Studio Society is seeking a new face to join our dynamic and diverse team in West Hampstead.

Providing world class studios, we're the UK's first fully immersive group fitness club who pride ourselves on delivering consistently amazing fitness classes, all day, every day. We've invested in premium audio-visual equipment and lighting, giving us the ability to project scenes onto the studio walls - taking your class from Cambodia to New York, or doing HIIT by the sea amongst dozens of backdrops in a unique class delivery setting.

As a Studio Society Fitness ambassador, you be responsible for managing the day to day running of the site reporting to the Assistant General Manager and General Manager and will lead, deliver and shape London's leading fitness class experience for our members.

This role is suited to someone confident, outgoing and who has excellent communication skills whilst having an eye for high standards in all areas of the role. We believe in setting an example and practising what we preach, inspiring members throughout their fitness journey and educating members on how to move and train effectively so being passionate for group exercise is a must and with over 250 classes a week; our club offers extensive opportunity to build a member following who you get to know and support on their journey.

With an additional personal training income available, Level 3 Personal Training qualified instructors can earn unlimited supplementary income outside of their shift hours which when hitting target, will essentially become a full-time working role with a healthy monthly income.

Customer service is critical to the role. This is where meeting and greeting members, touring them around the facilities and checking members into classes are a core part of each shift. This role does come with general maintenance and cleaning responsibilities as well as outreach so be prepared to get hands on and stuck in.

A knowledge of health and safety, risk management and sales processes will also be advantageous with full on the job training provided, if required.

Qualification/Experience Requirements

- Level 2 Gym Instructor (Essential)
- Level 2 Exercise to Music Qualification (Preferred)
- Level 3 Personal Trainer (Essential)
- Indoor Cycling, Circuits CPD (Preferred)
- One year experience in the fitness industry teaching group exercise classes (Preferred)

Club Operating Hours

- Mon–Thu: 06:00 – 21:00
- Fri: 07:00 – 20:00
- Sat: 08:00 – 15:00
- Sun: 08:00 – 15:00

Your working pattern will be fixed in line with the rota patterns required for the business. This will be discussed at interview or at the point a formal offer is made.

What We Offer

At Studio Society we know the value of a strong team, which is why we want to offer a fun and ever-growing career. By working together, we aim to achieve more in the group exercise space and advance member's fitness journeys.

We're a company with ambitious plans, so it's a great time to join us for opportunities to grow. We provide employees with extensive support and mentoring to aid in the development in delivery of fitness classes so we can create infectious energy across the studio floor that promotes and inspires group fitness and wellbeing.

With regular feedback for personal and professional development, coaching and a collaborative team, we help nurture each other's abilities and passions so if you feel you can offer something unique and show dedication in everything you do, we'd like to hear from you.
